

Methodist Church on Gambling

“Through the twentieth and twenty-first century, however, the Church’s view on gambling has developed...Many people in the churches do not gamble at all for ethical reasons, it is necessary to recognize that most people have seen a rise in their disposable incomes during this time, and many now see gambling as a ‘leisure activity.’

(Methodists on Gambling, adopted at the Methodist Conference of 1992).