

Merry Christmas from the “church of Christ”

By Scott Parker

Below is a picture of an “elder” in the “Lord’s church,” doing anything but shepherding the flock, during a Christmas Program at the Saint Andrews Road Church of Christ building in South Carolina. Where is the authority for fun and games being funded or connected to the church in anyway? Where is the authority for a Christmas program? Also, notice that it is a woman who is emceeing the event. What is the difference between this and any old denomination?
