

Moral & doctrinal error CANNOT fit into Rom. 14! What does fits into Rom.14 are matters of lawful opinion; i.e. things God authorizes, but has not demanded. In the context, the lawful opinions under review are the eating of meats and the setting aside of certain days to do lawful activities. There is nothing difficult about this – if you do not have sin to justify!

