

Rubel Shelly and Romans 14

(Note: what follows is error - SP)

“My comments here will be based on Romans 14:1-15:13. This section of Paul's most sublime epistle deals with doctrinal differences among baptized believers. First, I believe we must accept one another as brothers beloved of God. 'Accept one another, then,' pleaded Paul, 'just as Christ accepted you, in order to bring praise to God' (Rom. 15:7). Like it or not, we are brothers and sisters in Christ. That brothers differ on the millennium, work of the Holy Spirit, church organization, instrumental music, the role of women in church leadership, and a dozen other issues does not change the fact that they are all children of God.”
