

WHAT YOU WILL READ BELOW ARE MY ATTEMPTS TO REACH AN ERRING ONE (TODD STORKS). HIS SILENCE SHOWS WELL THE COWARDLY ATTITUDE OF THE LIBERALS.

Subject: To Todd Storks - a bible question

Hi Todd. Scott Parker here. I was looking at your website just now (I stumbled on to it) and saw the following words:

"We must speak where the Bible speaks and be silent where the Bible is silent. We must do things in Bible ways and call things by Bible names. Anything that is less than, more than, or different from what the Bible says is false doctrine. False doctrine will cause one to lose his soul in eternity" (<http://www.netbiblestudy.net/bulletin>)

While I much prefer the language of 1 Pet. 4:11; Col. 3:17; 2 Jn. 9-11, et al., what you have stated is, indeed, true. In that you claim to understand such, I would like to know where the biblical authority is for that which I have copied from your website below. Source: <http://www.pikecountychurchofchrist.gigshowcase.com/Page.aspx?PageID=3985>

Specifically, I would like to know where "sub-committees" and "sub-chairmen" (although plenty of women are listed) can be read about in the New Testament (Js. 2:12). Be honest now, are such titles "Bible Names" to use your terminology? I would also like to know where the form/pattern of sound words (2 Tim. 1:13) allows for women to be in leadership positions relative to the work of a local church. Also, I would really like to know what the "fellowship" sub-committee does.

Please cite book, chapter, and verse from the word of God, rightly divided. I surely am not interested in human reasoning (Prv. 3:5; 2 Cor. 10:5; et al).

Todd, it sure seems to me (based on what I see - Jn. 7:24) that you are not practicing that which you affirm. Such is hypocrisy (Rom. 2:1-3, 17-24) and we all know where hypocrites end up (Mt. 24:51).

I look forward to your timely reply. I seek only your good.

Concerned,

Scott

Todd, I have not heard a word from you about the material below. It has been two days. Do you plan on responding? You are duty bound to do so you know (1 Pet. 3:15).

Kindly,
Scott

Todd, based on your silence to my THREE requests for contact, I have no choice but to surmise that you have judged yourself unworthy of everlasting life (Ax. 13:46). I will quit wasting my time with you. How sad you do not care to practice 2 Cor. 13:5. As a cowardly person who serves the wrong god (little "g" intended) you need to quit preaching. Consider yourself marked (Rom. 16:17-18). I am posting all the email I sent you on my website, www.bywhatauthority.com so others can see the attitude of liberalism manifest in your silence. Todd, I am here if you decide to get brave and contact me so as to discuss Bible authority relative to the points listed in my first note to you. Sickened,

Scott Parker
